The Eerie occupied Houses

Through the years, men have lived and died on a large scale

In all houses, around which memories sail

Haunted with memories good and had

The experiences that the erstwhile people had.

We meet them in the corridor, in the hall,

Still than pictures hanging on the wall.

Impalpable phantoms in the air,

As quiet as mice, here and there.

Even though, not mentioned on paper, their name,

The house as their property, the people who claim.

Still hold in mortmain their old houses and lands,

The dead, from graves, stretch their hands.

Among the present, memories of former people unknown,

Always will linger, the ,memories deeply sown.

Even though the person dies

The great influences on the house still lies.

SOUL

My soul has my heart,
It is god's art.

My soul has my brain,
Smile we can train.

My soul has my love,
Let it overflow.

My soul has the care,
But make a change, we can dare.

My soul has the knowledge,
Study and we can acknowledge.

My soul has the god,
That is inside me, in my heart.

My soul has constellations of thoughts,
Spread inspirations you've got.

My soul has the courage,
Let's always encourage!
